VILLA TROOPS FIRE ON CARRANZA GARRISON

Governor Maytorena Opens Renewed Siege on Garrison in Naco, Sonora

FIRE IS WELL DIRECTED

Attackers Shelling Town Show Remarkable Reversal of Form in Their Gunnery

YAQUI INDIANS CHASE SKIRMISHERS

Naco, Ariz., Nov. 10.—Governor Maytorena's Villa troops opened the renewed siege on the Carranza garrison in Naco, Sonora, early tonight with well directed artillery fire. For thirty minutes the attackers threw shells into the town, doing little damage, but indicating a remarkable reversal of form in gunnery.

General Hill, commanding the garrison, sent out a skirmishing party in the afternoon which was sent scurrying back to cover by Maytorena's Yaqui Indians.

Maytorena Awaits Orders.

Washington, Nov. 10.—Secretary Garrison received the following telegram today from Major General Bliss at El Paso, in regard to the situation at Naco, on the Arizona-Mexican border:

"Maytorena's force has completely invested the hill position at Naco but has not commenced to take a position for attack. His headquarters are established on the Cananea railroad several miles south of Naco. There was some firing yesterday afternoon at long range by Hill's men but no reply. Maytorena evidently is awaiting orders to make an attack."

General's Attitude Changes?

El Paso, Tex., Nov. 10.—A telegram from Aguas Calientes today said that the commission headed by Gen. Obregon had informed the convention that Gen. Carranza was disposed to turn over the government as soon as Provisional President Gutierrez and his cabinet had assumed control of the civil government of the nation. This further mystified the situation regarding the attitude of Carranza, who previously had declared that he would not accept the convention's action in deposing him.

Wireless Station Closed.

Washington, Nov. 10.—The navy department was advised today that a secret wireless station at Ensenada, Lower California, had been ordered closed by the Mexican local authorities. The station which was erected on Mexican territory close to the American border is one of the several stations from which according to British officials, German cruisers in the Atlantic and Pacific have been receiving information concerning the whereabouts of the Allies' ships.

The radio station at Los Angeles reported merely that the Ensenada station was not operating and from other sources came the information that on representations from foreign consuls, the plant had been ordered closed by the Mexican officials.

Accedes to All Demands.

Vera Cruz, Nov. 10.—General Venustiano Carranza has acceded to all the demands of the United States government in connection with the evacuation of Vera Cruz by the American forces, according to private advices received here.

Relieved of their Commands.

Mexico City, Nov. 10.—Generals commanding 50,000 men in this vicinity were relieved of their commands today by General Venustiano Carranaz because they refused to nullify their action in signing an agreement to abide by the decisions of the Aguas Calientes convention. Among these soldiers are Gen. Benavides, commanding 10,000 men, Gen. Antonio Villareal, Gen. Juvenic Robles and many others.

It is reported here that Gen. Villa's advance guard, consisting of 15,000 men of all arms, is marching south of Encarnacian de Diaz on its way to the capital, which it is said to have been ordered to take in the name of Eulalio Guiterrez. Between these troops and their goal is Gen. Tablo Gozales, who is loyal to Carranza with 40,000 troops disposed about Queretaro City. It is expected a clash of arms will occur there.

In the capital there are 27,000 men, according to official figures, under Generals Blanco and Alvarado. General Blanco remains in Aguas Calientes.

Fighting of a severe character continues in the suburbs of the capital. Persistent attacks are being made on Xochimilco and San Angel by the followers of Emiliano Zapata. During the fighting last Sunday it is reported there were 300 casualties.

Shells rushed to the front from the citadel here are said to have been loaded with sawdust instead of powder. It is reported however, the Carranza forces have been vic-

War News Summarized

The battle in West Flanders and for miles to the south in French territory, continues with unabated fury. There apparently is little change in the general situation but each day of the fighting has meant a re-arrangement of forces at certain places, which in the end must be of vast importance when the reposing armies come to grips in the final struggle.

The advantage is claimed by both the Germans and the allies and it is possible both believe they have made gains at the points where gains are certain to count in the end. Meanwhile there unquestionably has been a great loss in killed, wounded and prisoners.

King George has sent to Field Marshall Sir John French his congratulations on the "pluck, spirit and endurance shown by the British troops against vastly superior forces," and expresses confidence in the final result.

The official statement from Berlin declares the western campaign is making satisfactory, but slow progress; that 500 French colored and English prisoners have been taken in the vicinity of Ypres; that further south the German troops have repulsed strong counter-attacks by the British and are advancing and that in the Argonne region favorable progress is being made.

The situation in the eastern arena is somewhat uncertain owing to conflicting reports. From Petrograd it is stated the Austrians continue their evacuation of positions to the southeast of Lemberg, in Galicia and in Bukowina. With respect to the latter territory it is said with the exception of a garrison of reservists no Austrian troops are left.

On the other hand, a Berlin despatch by way of London says official reports from Vienna announce the evacuation of the greater portion of Bokowina by the Russians, who are being pursued by the Austrians.

Petrograd official reports also claim marked progress in east Prussia, where the Germans are said to have been driven back.

Professor Pares, the British government's representative with the Russian army, without giving details or the result of the engagements says: "The theatre of recent operations (in Russian Poland) is of central importance. Here Austria and Germany joins hands and serious reverse would compel them either to retreat on divergent lines or to expose one or the other of their camps.

The loss of the cruiser Emden under fire of the Australian cruiser Eydney in the Indian Ocean and the bottling up of the Koenigsberg are incidents which have rejoiced the British public as both these German war ships have been exceedingly active in destroying British merchant vessels.

Advices from South Africa report further rounding up of rebels, not far from Pretoria, where an additional 120 have been killed or wounded.

For the first time since 1700 there has been an execution in the tower of London. Carl Hans Lody, a German spy, who lived for a time in the United States being shot.

CONCILIATORS TO REPORT PROGRESS NEXT SATURDAY

Men Sent Into Colorado by President Wilson Will Tell What They Have Accomplished.

Washington, Nov 10—W. R. Fairley and Hywel Davies, conciliators, sent into Colorado by President Wilson in an effort to bring peace between the warring operators and employees of the coal region will make a personal report of progress to Secretary Wilson of the labor department next Saturday.

Mr. Fairley has been in the Colorado strike zone continuously since President Wilson urged the acceptance by both sides of the question tentative basis for adjustment of the strike, drawn up by the conciliation committee. The employees have accepted the plan but the operators have rejected it and Mr. Fairley has been endeavoring to persuade them to change their attitude. Mr. Davies has not been in Colorado for some weeks.

At Secretary Wilson's office it was said today that commissioners might have some new light to throw on the Colorado situation; but that no inkling of it had yet reached here. They are coming to report in person the effects they have made and to receive additional instructions or suggestions the secretary may care to give.

FIRE ON REMBRANDT BURNS 800 HORSES

VIRTUALLY ALL HORSES ON BOARD BRITISH SHIP ARE CREMATED

Captain Notifies Steamship Officials That He Believes the Vessel Was Fired by German Spies, Who Are Members of the Crew.

Norfolk, Va., Nov. 10.—Virtually all of the 800 horses on board the British steamship Rembrandt were burned to death when the ship took fire off the Virginia capes, yesterday, according to information reaching here tonight. The Rembrandt was bound from Baltimore to St. Naziere France and the animals are understood to have been intended for the armies of the allies.

It was reported here tonight that Captain Eldin, of the Rembrandt had notified officials of the Lamport and Holt line, owners of the ship that he had reason to believe the vessel was fired by German spies, who were members of the crew. The captain is said to have claimed that threats against the ship were made before she steamed from Baltimore Saturday. No confirmation of these reports was available.

Tonight the Rembrandt was ten miles off Cape Henry disposing of the carcasses of the horses. She will proceed to New Port News for repairs. Forward compartments of the ship are reported badly damaged.

When the fire was discovered the ship was two hundred miles off the Capes. The smoke was so dense that the crew could not reach the flames and the stampeded animals were left to their fate. The ship's hold was flooded and the hatches closed, smothering out the fire.

BUTTER MERCHANTS FEEL EFFECT OF OLEOMARGARINE

When Butter Prices Rise the Substitute Has the Big Sales.

New York, Nov. 10.—Butter merchants are beginning to feel the effect on the market of the manufacture of olemargarine, according to Howard J. Runyon, who testified today at the inquiry into the alleged butter and egg monopoly in this city. When butter prices rise, he said, the substitute has foremost sales.

The witness outlined an attempt of "centralizers"—a combination of large creamery butter makers—to force down the grade of the best butter some years ago.

"'Centralizers' form a strong combination in the middle and western states, where they make a fair grade of inferior butter", the witness said, "but if they succeeded in lowering the grade scale in this city, they would be able to market their product as best quality, when in reality it is much inferior to what is now the highest quality."

MRS. DANIELS ADDRESSES DAUGHTERS OF CONFEDERACY

Declares Southern Women Should Aid in Eradicating Animosity Between the North and the South.

Savannah, Ga., Nov. 10.—Southern women should recognize and more fully accept the part they may play in eradicating any lingering animosities between the north and south, declared Mrs. Josephus Daniels, wife of the Secretary of the navy in an address at the opening session here tonight of the annual convention of the United Daughters of the Confederacy. Mrs. Daniels, as delegate from North Carolina, spoke in response to an address of welcome.

"Let those of us who know of the travail of the Sixties keep alive the glory of sacrifice and the valor of the vanquished to the latest day of our lives," said Mrs. Daniels, "but let us not look mournfully upon the past but ask ourselves the qestion: 'How can Southern women of the Twentieth Century prove worthy of their lineage and transmit to their children the graces and virtues which were incarnated in the southern women of the war and reconstruction periods?'

"First of all, we must know that love is greater than all things. Our children must be taught to love the flag of their country and sons and daughters alike given to see the patriotism of those who wore the blue as well of those who wore the gray."

Mrs. Daniels paid tribute to Mrs. Woodrow Wilson as "the best type of southern womanhood."

DECATUR AGENT SHOT BY SECTION HAND.

Decatur, Ill., Nov. 10.—Earl S. Birch, station agent for the Illinois Traction System at Whiteheath, was shot in the neck by a drunken section hand with a 22 calibre rifle tonight. Birch was rushed to this city and is now in a hospital. It could not be determined tonight if the wound would be fatal.

MAY ATTEND BIG GAME.

Washington, Nov. 10.—President Wilson has received an invitation to attend the army-navy football game in Philadelphia November 28 and may accept. Following out the precedent set by other presidents as commander in chief of the army and navy, Mr. Wilson witnessed the game last year.

YARDS WILL RE-OPEN AT MIDNIGHT SUNDAY

Union Stock Yards Will Then Operate Under a Limited Quarantine

DISEASE IS CHECKED

State Veterinarian Reports Epidemic Checked in Illinois—May Save Herd of Prize Cattle

FOURTEEN STATES QUARANTINED

Chicago, Nov. 10.—The Union Stock Yards, the largest in the world, will re-open at midnight Sunday and until the foot and mouth disease has been eradicated in the middlewest will operate under a limited quarantine. Stock will be received for slaughter within twenty-four hours and only from those states and countries which are not under quarantine. None of the meat will be shipped out of the city.

Hope that the yards might be opened tomorrow was dissipated when it was learned that hog cholera virus manufactured here had become infected with the germs of the hoof and mouth disease and had been spread broadcast through shipments to farmers. State and federal inspectors are visiting farms where the cholera preventative has been shipped since October 1, and are placing them under quarantine. Railroads were notified today not to accept shipments from points to which the remedy has been sent.

Office holders in the live stock exchange building, the office building in the yards, were notified they must vacate their offices by 1 o'clock Wednesday to permit the fumigation of the building. It will be re-opened Thursday.

That the disease has been checked in Illinois and a similar plague will never visit American live stock again was the opinion of Dr. E. O. Dyson, state veterinarian. This official added he did not believe federal authorities would order the slaughter of infected animals of the herd of prize dairy cattle exhibited at the National Dairy Show. He said every effort would be made to same these animals. They are worth $2,500,000.

Statement to Iowans.

Des Moines, Ia., Nov. 10.—J. I. Gibson, state verterinarian in reply to shippers of cattle in Iowa, who apepared to have been confused regarding recent federal and state quarantines against the hoof and mouth disease, today issued the following statement:

"The state of Iowa is now under federal quarantine. This quarantine absolutely prohibits the shipment of cattle, sheep, hogs, hay and straw from Iowa to any other state.

"Fat cattle and hogs for immediate slaughter may come to Iowa slaughtering points in cars cleaned and disinfected in accordance with government regulations."

Dr. Gibson said the task of the government and state officials in preventing the spread of the epidemic was such that they could not afford to spend part of their time answering questions. It was to clear up any misapprehension as to the meaning of the quarantine order that he issued the statement.

No Disease at Peoria.

Peoria, Ill., Nov. 10.—Dr. John Scott, of Peoria, assistant veterinarian today discovered that several steers on a farm near Lacon, Ill., were infected with the foot and mouth disease. A quarantine order was issued pending valuation and orders for their destruction.

Another herd of 31 herd of steers in Putman county shows symptoms of the disease and is in quarantine. The stock yards at Lacon where the steers were unloaded on arriving from Chicago were quarantined today.

The Peoria Union Stock Yards are being drenched with disinfectants although no infected animals have been found here. Twelve thousand feeders at the distillery have been examined and not a trace of the foot and mouth disease has been found. Clark Brothers and company, one of the largest feeders in Peoria have shut off the receipt of all hay and are feeding their cattle on cotton hulls.

Kentucky is Quarantined.

Washington, Nov. 10.—Fourteen states are now under federal quarantine because of the foot and mouth disease. Kentucky was added to the list today, reports of infection in that state coming with news of further spread of the epidemic in Indian, Ohio and Michgan.

Extension of the infected districts in the middlewest surprised and somewhat discouraged officials of the department of agriculture who had expressed the belief that the epidemic had been brought under control in that section. Nevertheless the hope was confidently reiterated today that there would be little more spreading. The only state under suspicion now is Mississippi, where a strange malady in a herd of cattle at Como is being investigated.

Department officials said today they could not account for the outbreak of the peculiar disease. Another thing that is puzzling the experts is the fact that a larger proportion of swine have been affected than in previous epidemics.

It was explained at the department that while Dr. Simeon Flexner of of the Rockefeller Institute was expected to go into the infected regions to study the disease, he would act in a private capacity and not in connection with the government forces.

Disease in McLean County.

Bloomington, Ill., Nov. 10.—The foot and mouth disease was today discovered on two farms southwest of this city. These are the first herds in McLean county to be quarantined.

National Yards Open Thursday.

East St. Louis, Ill., Nov. 10.—The National Stock Yards at East St. Louis closed last Saturday by federal quarantine orders will be reopened at 6 o'clock next Thursday morning for the receipt of native cattle and hogs for immediate slaughter only.

WILL INVESTIGATE RUMORED MISHAP

NAVY DEPARTMENT HUNTING NEWS OF U. S. CRUISERS

Cruisers North Carolina and Tennessee in Turkish Waters Have Not Been Heard From Since November 2.—North Carolina is Reported Blown Up.

Washington, Nov. 10.—Secretary Daniels today ordered the division of operations in the navy department to get into communication as quickly as possible with the cruisers North Carolina and Tennessee to learn if one of them had met with a mishap as was rumored during the day.

The secretary and other navy officials said they did not feel the slightest apprehension for the safety of either vessel, but thought it advisable to ally any alarm by getting definite advices. Rumors were in the air throughout the day that the North Carolina had been blown up by a mine at Beirut but so far as could be discovered all reports originated within the United States.

Officials pointed out that while cable communication with Turkey is slow they were in touch with Constantinople and Beirut from which points any accidents would have been promptly reported. Similarly British ships near Turkey would have reported to the British admiralty. The navy department last heard directly from the North Carolina and the Tennessee on November 2, the former was at Beirut, Syria and the latter at Mytilene, off the coast of Greece. On November 7 and November 9, inquiries were sent by cable by the department to the two vessels to learn the basis of reports that one of the American cruisers had landed marines but no answer came. It developed late today that no effort had been made to learn whether the cable company had been able to transmit the messages. Secretary Daniels at once ordered that the messages be traced.

ENGLISH PLAN TO STIMULATE RECRUITING

Government Sends Every Householder Blank Form to Fill Out.

London, Nov. 10.—To stimulate recruiting and to find out how many of those eligible for service are willing to enlist, the government has decided to send to every householder whose name is on the voting list a blank form which he will be asked to return with a statement of what members in his household have enlisted or are willing to enlist. The giving of this information is not mandatory, however.

Each form will be accompanied by a letter signed by Premier Asquith, Andrew Bonar Law and Arthur Henderson, presidents of the parliamentary recruiting committee, in which they state that the number of recruits thus far obtained, though large, is not nearly large enough to meet the nation's requirements and that to maintain in full force the armies which it is hoped to throw into the field in a few months, "we shall need the best the nation can give us of its youth and strength if we are to repair, as far as may be humanely possible, the innumerable wrongs inflicted on our allies; if we are to avoid for ourselves the ills which they have suffered, if we are to maintain for our children all that we hold dear in honor and freedom of our very life as a nation, we must fight with the courage and endurance which won for us the struggles of the past."

WOMAN'S FEDERATION OPENS CONVENTION

THOUSANDS OF WOMEN ATTEND SPRINGFIELD MEETING

Resolutions Committee Will Report Today—Election of Officers Tomorrow—Three Candidates For President.

Springfield, Ill., Nov. 10.—The twentieth annual convention of the Illinois Federation of Woman's Clubs opened today in this city, with a thousand women from every section of the state in attendance. Tomorrow the resolutions committee will present its report and on the following day officers will be elected. The war in Europe is responsible for at least two resolutions which will come before the convention. The first, advocating simplicity in attire and the wearing of cotton goods as an aid to the southern cotton producers, promises to cause a lively discussion. The second advocates relief for the widows and orphans who are victims of the war in Europe. It has been suggested that the federation go on record as favoring the adoption by club women of Illinois of Belgian orphans.

The resolutions will also declare for a constitutional convention in Illinois, unlimited woman suffrage, extension of the civil service laws and against the re-election of any officer of the federation.

Reports of officers constituted most of the business transacted today. A recommendation that the Constitution be changed so as to provide for the nomination of officers by a committee consisting of the twenty-five district vice-presidents, instead of from the floor of the convention, was voted down after a sharp contest. Mrs. George Bass of Chicago led the opposition to the proposition on the ground it was undemocratic and a step backward.

The name of the official publication—"The Illinois Club Bulletin",—was changed to "The Illinois Federation Bulletin", in the face of vigorous opposition led by Mrs. Frances D. Everett of Chicago, founder of the publication.

Mrs. John C. Swinson, Chicago, Mrs. George T. Palmer, Springfield, and Mrs. Howard T. Wilson, Virden, are among the candidates for president.

The delegates this evening attended a reception at the executive mansion given by Governor and Mrs. Edward F. Dunne.

GIVES DETAILS OF SINKING OF TURKISH TRANSPORTS

Official Communication From General Staff of Russian Navy.

Petrograd, Nov. 10.—An official communication from the general staff of the navy, issued this evening, gives the details of the sinking recently of several Turkish transports. The communication says:

"The commander of the Russian fleet on nearing Port Sangouldak sent two of his ships with some torpedo boats to destroy the buildings and workshops of the port. This was done successfully. Moreover, a Turkish steamer was sunk.

"At the same time our scout ship sighted a Turkish military transport filled with soldiers which was about to put to sea. Our cruiser approached this vessel, opened fire and sank it. Then the Russian fleet put to sea.

"Shortly afterwards the Russian fleet sighted throught the midst a Turkish naval column of two transports, one of which, the midhat passa had hoisted the war pennant. Torpedo boats sent to destroy these transports soon sighted a third one.

"The three transports, laden with ammunition, guns, automobiles and aeroplanes, were sunk. We saved and captured 248 men on the ships, among them several German officers and a staff officer who was bearing documents. The prisoners declared the transports were being used to take troops to Trebizond."

CLAIMS OF ARMIES DO NOT DOVE-TAIL

Destruction Of Emden and Trapping of Koenigsberg Only Facts Undisputed

MARINE INSURANCE CUT

British Insurance Rate Is Halved on News of German Commerce Destroyer's End

BELGIAN'S FOOD SUPPLY MAY BE CUT

London, Nov. 10.—Claims of the contending armies in the eastern and western theatres of war, especially as concerns the situation in West Flanders, dove-tailed in so few respects tonight as to leave but one big fact on land or sea undisputed. That was the destruction of the German raider Emden and the trapping of the German cruiser Koenigsberg, the latter in a palm lined East African river, under circumstances which read as though they were taken from Stevenson.

The British marine insurance rate was almost instantly cut in half—for never since the days of the Alabama has there been such a successful commerce destroyer as the Emden. Cheers broke forth at Lloyds on the announcement and for the moment the struggles of the armies in France, Belgium, Russia and elsewhere were forgotten. Yet all these armies were at each other's throats, the Germans and Russians clashing in cavalry engagements along the German frontiers, the Russians still harassing the Austrians in Galicia and the French, British and Belgians uniting to hold back what still appears a tremendous German attempt to break through the allied line in the vicinity of Ypres.

Slackening of the Attacks.

Many despatches speak of the movement of German troops eastward from Belgium as forecasting the reinforcement along the frontier but neither the French nor the German official statements indicated any slackening in the violence of the German attacks in west Flanders. In fact the French statement says that between the sea and Arementieres the opposing forces were both acting on the offensive.

As to the outcome of this double offensive the rival contentions are absolutely contradictory, the Germans claiming slow progress near Ypres and the French asserting that the German attack was beaten back. In view of what seems to be a sustained and concerted German effort in this region, the reports of the German retirement are hardly borne out, although it is said they have moved their headquarters still further east, this time from Ghent to Alost.

The situation along the battle line in France proper, from the standpoint of the allies, was summed up in a despatch from an "observer with the Indian corps", who says there has been no marked change anywhere, though he professes to see a gradual weakening of the German attacks.

Germany's Alleged Threat.

Aside from the military aspects of the war, which stood at boldest today was Germany's reported threat to cut off the food supply which the United States is sending to Belgium, if the Belgians did not return to their cities and make an effort to resume their normal occupations. The Belgian answer is that it has been impossible to resume a semblance of normal activity because the German soldiery had commandered all implements and materials necessary to an industrial revival.

The British government issued tonight another so-called white paper, reviewing the incidents which preceded the declaration of war against Turkey. It deals in the main with the Goeben and Breslau affair and sets forth that the grand vizier all along was at least ostensibly against dragging Turkey into the conflict but either was powerless to resist Enver Bey and his associates, or while outwardly opposing them he was winking at the fast approaching crisis, while the Turkish and German preparations went forward.

MR. AND MRS. S. THORNBERRY TENDER THEIR RESIGNATIONS

Will Leave Old People's Home January 1—Have Been in Charge There for Five Years.

Mr. and Mrs. Thornberry have had the matter of resigning in mind for some time and recently came to a definite conclusion. They have had charge of the local institution for five years, coming here in 1909 from Mansfield, Ohio, and have been frequently congratulated upon for having held the position longer than any of their predecessors. Their many friends in Jacksonville will regret to see them leave knowing that they will be greatly missed in the Home, the church and the community. The board has as yet taken no action toward the appointment of their successors.

COUNTY CLERK SPOILS A DOUBLE WEDDING

Tuesday James R. Neal, his daughter Goldies, Miss Mary Taylor, and Samuel Hardy, all of Beardstown, arrived in Jacksonville with big plans laid for a pretty double wedding. Mr. Neal promptly secured a marriage license for himself and Miss Taylor. Mr. Neal is 37 years of age while the young lady has seen but 18 summers. When the gentleman tried to get a license for dis daughter Goldie, who is but 17 years old and who wished to be married here to Mr. Hardy, he found it impossible. The law states that if a minor be under age they must appear before the county clerk in the county in which they reside in order to get permission to have the necessary papers issued. Mr. Hardy, who is twenty one years of age, and Miss Goldie therefore were forced to return to Virginia where the elder Neal might legally give his consent to his daughter's marriage. Mr. Neal and Miss Taylor were duly married by Judge Brockhouse. Witnesses were C. W. Boston and W. W. Barr. Neal is a laborer in the river town and this is his second venture on the matrimonial sea.

Every farmer who comes to Jacksonville this week is invited to visit the Knoles store and inspect the splendid fall showing of men's suits, overcoats and furnishings.

ROCKFORD HIGH WANTS TO PLAY JACKSONVILLE

Coach Buland Receives Letter from School Asking for Game Thanksgiving Day.

Coach Buland received a letter from C. L. Bailey, chairman of the Athletic Board of Control of Rockford, asking for a game with the Jacksonville High School, for Thanksgiving Day, the game to be played at Rockford. They offer $60 and expenses or else 35 per cent of the gate receipts. The offer is being taken under advisement.

Jacksonville would have nothing to win as regards the state championship should she defeat Rockford as both Moline and Aurora defeated Rockford, Jacksonville, Champaign, Moline, West Aurora and Greenfield are the only teams in the race for the state title. Springfield is out by their defeat by Champaign, 30 to 2. Bloomington High is out through their defeat by Peoria Central, who J. H. S. defeated 7 to 6.

Jacksonville will go to Quincy next Saturday where they meet the High school eleven of that city.

COAL MONOPOLY ARGUMENT.

New York, Nov. 10.—Final argument in the government's effort to break up the alleged hard coal monopoly is set for tomorrow before Judge Hough in the U. S. District Court. The Department of Justice last month filed its brief in the anti-trust suit against the Lehigh Valley Coal Sales Company. The bill against this and other companies alleged to be in unlawful combination, was filed montas ago. The government charges that the concerns, through other subsidiary coal companies, monopolized coal production, transportation and sale from mines on the Lehigh Valley railroad, and that in perfecting this monopoly more than 90,000 acres in the anthracite region have been acquired and competitors absorbed and output curtailed by purchase contracts. The coal companies will make a spirited defense.

OLD NEWSPAPERS GIVE 'INSIGHT INTO OTHER DAYS

"Jackson Standard" Was Democratic Newspaper Published Here in 1846—Opening of School for the Deaf—The Cholera in St. Louis.

A friend of the Journal living at Lake Charles, Louisiana, recently sent to this office two old newspapers which he found by chance in looking through an old desk. One is a Jacksonville paper published in 1846, "The Jackson Standard" and the other a St. Louis paper, "The St. Louis Weekly Union," published in 1849. The Jacksonville paper was mailed to C. P. Epler, a brother of the late Judge Cyrus Epler, who lived at that time at the Jersey Prairie postoffice in the north part of Morgan county. The St. Louis paper was mailed to George Epler, late of Sangamon county and an uncle of the late Judge Epler. At that time George Epler lived near Lancaster postoffice in Cass county, 3 miles west of the present town of Ashland. The Jackson Standard bears the date of Thursday, March 19, 1846 and is a six-column, four-page paper. The paper had been established only a few months before the date mentioned and the prospectus was still carried as an advertisement.

It stated that the publishers were J. S. and E. W. Doberts, and that the Standard was a paper with Democratic principles and would be devoted to the support of the ideas upheld by the deceased patriot, Andrew Jackson. It was the further expressed wish of the publishers to make the paper not only a useful party organ but interesting from a foreign, commercial and agricultural standpoint. Among advertisements carried at that time were those of John W. Goltra & Co., James and Stephen Dunlap, John T. Sigler, who had a saddle and harness shop on the west side of the square, and Dr. David Prince whose residence was given as "St. Louis street, the house recently occupied by D. Fat Henderson."

Opening of Deaf and Dumb.

One of the interesting announcements in the paper is signed by William Thomas, secretary of the board of directors of the Illinois Deaf and Dumb Asylum, and states that arrangements have been made for the reception of pupils at that institution by the first of December, 1846. This notice further goes on to say, "Mr. Thomas Officer, late teacher in the Ohio asylum, has been appointed principal and superintendent. Every effort will be made to promote by all proper and feasible means the intellectual, moral and physical culture of that unfortunate portion of the community who by the mysterious dispensation of Providence have been born, or by disease became, deaf and of course dumb, and by a judicious and well adapted course of education, to reclaim them from their lonely and cheerless condition, restore them to the rank of their species and fit them for the discharge of the social and domestic duties of life. The act incorporating the institution requires that gratuitous instruction, with board and lodging, be furnished the deaf and dumb of this state so far as the funds of the institution will admit, though the funds of the institution will be required for purposes of improvement and finishing of the building, yet it is intended to limit the amount expended in this way so as to receive into the school all who may apply. The asylum is located one mile west of the public square in Jacksonville. The pupils will be boarded in the same building in which they are taught, they will be under the superintendence of the principal, who will board with them, and will therefore be restrained from habits of idleness and vice."

A heavy penalty was placed upon subscribers of the Jackson Standard who did not pay in advance, as the yearly price in advance was $1.50 and the price at the end of the year was $3.

Cholera in St. Louis.

The St. Louis Weekly Union, which in July, 1849, was just rounding out its second year of existence, was published by Richard Phimps and the office was at No. 35 Locust street between Main and second. The Union was a paper of four pages, ten columns in width and contained a vast amount of reading matter set in solid nonpareil type. Even murders and very important news happenings, in accordance with the custom of that day, were printed only with a single line head or without any at all, and thus every available inch of space was devoted to absolute reading matter. One editorial will recall some old time Jacksonville history as it refers to the prevalence of cholera. This editorial goes on to say: "We have not a word of consolation to offer our readers today on the subject of the prevailing epidemic. On the contrary, the reports and the appearance of our streets show that cholera is yet with us in all its frightful malignity. It will be found that the report for recent days equals in point of number probably any that has preceded it for the same length of time." Then follows a list of interments showing that of the total deaths about seventy-five per cent were caused by cholera. Then the editorial says, "When we take into consideration the fact that at least one-third of our population has either died or left the city we perceive that there is little cause for hope that we are speedily to be relieved of the terror of this fateful malady. In our city business is stagnated, our streets are almost deserted, most of them present the quiet, lifeless appearance we are accustomed to witness on the Sabbath, and none scarcely of that bustle and activity so characteristic of this busy mart is perceived."

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE DIRECTORS HOLD MONTHLY SESSION

Reports Presented by Chairmen of Departments—Committee on By-Laws Named—Planning for Made in Jacksonville and Pure Food Show.

The November meeting of the directors of the Chamber of Commerce was held Tuesday night with a large representation present. The question of finances was discussed at some length and plans were outlined for broadening the scope of the work undertaken. F. H. Bode chairman of the traffic committee, reported that the fund which had been collected to prosecute a case before the Interstate Commerce Commission in connection with Springfield had been returned to the contributors. The statement was made however that the committee has filed a complaint with the commission on account of the classification which affects Jacksonville. A reply has been received and in due course of time the complaint will have attention if the city decides to prosecute it.

T. M. Tomlinson, chairman of the retailers department reported that the merchants have been holding conferences with reference to some general plan for holiday closing throughout the year. Some classes of business will close all day on holidays like Thanksgiving, Christmas and New Years and other lines of business will close at noon on these days. It is hoped that some sort of rules in the matter may be generally adopted.

Frank J. Heinl, chairman of the rural affairs committee, reported the oganization of the Mogan county Farmers' club and mentioned the need of marking certain auto trails through the county. It was the decision of the directors that the county board should be willing to assist in the expense of this work and the matter will be laid before them. President Reeve appointed F. J. Heinl, Dr. Bowe and George E. Doying a committee on by-laws to suggest desirable changes to be made in the by-laws for the coming year.

Secretary Fritchey reported a balance of $52 in the barbecue fund of the Boosters' department and this was ordered transferred to the fund of the pure food and made in Jacksonville show which will be given some time in December. The directors took occasion to express their approval of the way in which the barbecue was managed and declared the young men were deserving of a large amount of commendation as the event was one of the best which has ever been planned for Jacksonville. After discussing some other matters the meeting was adjourned.

Although a date for re-opening the exchange has not been officially announced, a prominent official of the exchange said today there was no reason why business should not begin by the first of next week.

The Cotton Trading Corporation, which is a part of the corporation-syndicate plan for taking over contracts which have remained outstanding since the exchanges were closed on account of the war, has been fully organized for business. Its president is S. T. Hubbard, a president of the cotton exchange.

HERE are some statistics gathered from the records of the Cigar Makers Internatianal Union. They are interesting at this time. They show the effects of the economic organization, which uses this label.

In 1890, 49 per cent of the amount expended for sick benefit went to those suffering from tuberculosis.

In 1910 the total amount expended for sick benefits was $189,438.59, of which amount about 21 5-10 per per cent, or $40,729.30, was paid to members suffering fromt uberculosis.

In 1911 the total expended for sick benefit amounted to $201,296.03, of which amount 20 1-10 per cent, or $40,460.50, was paid to members suffering from tuberculosis. This shows a reduction of 28 9-10 per cent in 21 years.

These figures are based on a general average, while as a matter of fact, those suffering from tuberculosis are more generally sick, and hence more liable to draw sick benefit, so that the average amount is necessarily and reasonably not fully covered in the figures given.

FAVOR INCORPORATION OF LAND MORTGAGE BANKS

Wisconsin Committee on Rural Credits Endorses Torrens Land Title System.

Madison, Wis., Nov. 10.—Incorporation of land mortgage banks under both state and federal laws was favored today by the committee on rural credits of the governor's conference. The committee's report, presented by Governor Emmet O'Neill of Alabama, recommended uniform legislation regarding registration of land titles, foreclosures and taxation of mortgages around which much confusion now centers. The Torrens land title system was endorsed.

Uniformity along these lines, said Governor O'Neill would give the farmer access to funds of savings banks, trust funds under the control of courts and reserves of large insurance companies. In this outcome he saw the one great opportunity for farmers of America to obtain adequate funds for agriculture development.

He recommended the conference appoint a subcommittee to prepare a new federal bill to meet the conditions and defects as he outlined them.

The state should extend adequate credit to settlers, declared Governor A. E. Oberhart of Minnesota, just as in his commonwealth public funds are loaned to municipalities and schools. He saw grave difficulties in the way of a uniform system of rural credits owing to the varying rates of interest in different sections of a state.

Governor C. L. Blease of South Carolina and David I. Walsh of Massachusetts were among the arrivals tonight.

The governors and their wives were given a reception at the capital tonight by Governor McGovern and the citizens of Madison.

Ultimatum Expires.

Washington, Nov. 10.—The ultimatum of the Mexican convention at Aguas Calientes ordering Gen. Carranza to deliver the executive power in Mexico to Eulalio Gutierrez expired at 6 o'clock tonight.

Neither the state department nor the Mexican embassy here in charge of Carranza agents had any definite advices as to what had occurred. Early in the day Rafael Zubaran Capmany, Washington representative of Carranza received a telegram from Louis Cabrera was at Cordoba with Gen. Caranza yesterday, stating that the latter had decided to recognize the acts of the convention with certain reservations.

Carranza, according to Mr. Cabrera, told the commission which came to notify him of the selection of Gutierrez by the convention, that he was willing to yield the executive power to a provisional president who would exercise no theoretical but actual control of the division of the north, now commanded by Gen. Villa.

The convention had formally notified Caranza that it intended to administer the oath of office to Gutierrez as provisional president tonight and that any one who did not recognize him would be considered as in revolution against the constitutional government in Mexico.

There was a feeling in administration circles that Carranza eventually would yield to the wishes of the convention, being unwilling to plunge Mexico into another revolution. This was based, however, more on previous intimations in official reports as to Carranza's desire for peace than on any direct advices today.

BELGIAN VOICES PROTEST AGAINST GERMAN THREAT

Claims it is Impossible for Citizens of Belgium to Work as Usual.

London, Nov. 10.—A member of the Belgian organization for the distribution of food from the United States was in London tonight and was quick to voice a protest against the reported proclamation by the Germans at Brussels, which would nullify American philanthropy.

"I am much surprised to hear the Germans proclamation", he said. "With the best will in the worl it is practically impossible for the citizens of Belgium to work as usual: It is utterly inconceivable that after giving to the commission for relief permission officially to bring food from America to the devastated country, the German authorities could, on the pretext mentioned, stop supplies necessary to our very existence."

PREDICTS BALLOT FOR WOMEN OF U. S. WITHIN FEW YEARS

Mrs. O. H. P. Belmont Addresses Southern States Suffrage Conference.

Chattanooga, Tenn., Nov. 10.—Predictions that the women of the United States will have the ballot within a comparatively few years and that there will be no quarrel among leaders over the methods by which it is to be obtained, were voiced by Mrs. O. H. P. Belmont, of New York and other women prominent in the suffrage movement before the Southern States Suffrage Conference here tonight.

"We have progressed so far", said Mrs. Belmont, "that we are disagreeing about the terms on which we shall accept the vote—the inevitable premonition of victory. I have sworn allegiance to a national amendment while the southern conference seems to hold to the principles of state rights. If the latter method proves effective I shall gratefully accept the results."

This sentiment was endorsed by the half dozen other speakers including Mrs. Harriett Stanton Blatch of New York and Miss Laura Clay of Kentucky.

John Springer who underwent an operation at Passavant hospital, died this (Wednesday) morning at 2 o'clock. He was 62 years of age and resided 7 miles east of Arenzville. He leaves a wife and one son lee. A suitable obituary will appear later.

INDIAN FORCES IN FRANCE MAKE GOOD

INDIANS FIGHT UNDER DIFFICULTIES BECAUSE OF IGNORANCE OF LANGUAGES.

Germans Have Taken Advantages and Played Many Tricks on Them —Stories of Amazing Adventures and Exploits Mainly Fiction.

London, Nov. 10.—The Indian forces in France have made good but have achieved none of the extraordinary exploits attributed to them, according to a statement issued by the Official Press Bureau tonight under date of November 10 and written by "an observer with the Indian corps."

Above all, the account emphasizes the difficulties under which the Indians are fighting because of their ignorance of the French, German and English languages.

Repeatedly the Germans have played tricks on them.

"The Germans are full or resource," says the account, "and it is one of their favorite plans to lure the Allied troops into attacking them by various devices, of which an indicated intention of surrendering is the most common. If this deception is successful, a skillfully concealed machine gun turns a murderous fire upon those who advanced either to attack or to accept surrender.

"The audacity of the enemy cannot better be illustrated than by a well authenticated statement of what took place last night in a trench held by the Gurkha regiment. A figure silhouhetted by the moonlight and wearing a complete Gurkha uniform approached the end of the trench and delivered this message: 'The Gurkhas are to move further up the trench; another Gurkha contingent is advancing in support.'

"The English was good, but some thing excited the officer's suspicions. 'Answer and answer quickly,' he said. 'If you are a Gurkha by what boat did you cross?' This question under the circumstances was no easy one to answer and the German—for such he was—turned and fled. But he had not gone five yards before he fell riddled with bullets.

"If the officer had been deceived, the French, of course, would have swarmed with the Germans almost before the Gurkhas had made room for them. It is easy to distinguish the Germans and French in the day but not at night.

Understand But One Language.

"The Gurkhas understand no language than their own. Stragglers are exposed to difficulties in the way of rejoining their units which it is almost impossible to exaggerate; nor must it be forgotten that the intentions which the German emperor expressed with reference to the forces under the command of Field Marshall Sir John French embraced to an equal degree the army corps composed of our Indian subjects.

"Letters found upon wounded men and prisoners make it clear that the German military authorities have specially charged the troops with the task of inflicting the severest possible punishment upon the forces whose civilization they deny and whose soldierly qualities they affect to disparage.

"Under these coircumstances it is a subject of great satisfaction that the Indian troops have so finely fulfilled the high expectations which were formed of them. A word of caution, however, should be uttered with regard to the amazing adventures and exploits attributed to them, recommendations desired neither by the officers nor the men.

"It need hardly be said that the conduct and example of the British officers, who have undergone precisely the same hardship as the men, have been worthy of the highest traditions of the service. In loss of officers and men Great Britain has paid and is paying and will continue to pay a cruel and constant price for the liberties of Europe and her own existence as a world-wide power."

Of the situation in France the statement says:

"Little change has taken place in the general position. They are not wanting, however, signs that the German offensive which has been as resolutely pushed as it has been stubbornly met, is gradually spending its strength."

EUROPEAN WAR NOTES

Has Been Shot as a Spy.

London, Nov. 10.—It is officially announced that Carl Hans Lody, alias Charles A. Inglis, who was found guilty by a court martial of espionage November 2, has been shot as a spy.

When arrested Lody claimed to be an American but later confessed he was a German. He had lived in New York and Omaha. In the latter city he married the daughter of Gottlieb Storz, a brewer, who later divorced him.

Despatch From Berlin.

London, Nov. 10.—The following despatch from Berlin was received this evening by the Marconi Wireless Telegraph Co.:

"It is officially reported from Vienna that the Russians have evacuated the greater portion of Bukowina and retired in the direction of the Dneister river, where they have been pursued by the Austrian troops who have taken many prisoners.

"It is officially reported that after two days heavy fighting on the Caucasian frontier the Turkish troops have defeated the Russian army and captured the Russian positions.

"A Turkish fleet has pursued Russian ships which were bombarding Koslu but the ships escaped in the fog."

Western Campaign Slow.

Berlin, Nov. 10.—By wireless—According to official information given to the press today, the western campaign is making satisfactory, albeit slow progress. Interest, however, continues to center strongly in the eastern arena but the beginning of actual operations has not been announced.

Major Moraht, in the Tageblatt, explains that the operations in Poland have not reached a point where the leaders are justified in setting forth the situation. At the proper time, he says, the people will learn what really is happening. In the meantime assurances may be given that there is no fear of a Russian invasion of German territory in force. The forces at the boundary are sufficient to prevent any such movement. Russians may penetrate the border, he adds, but the German army in the east is stronger than ever and can stop any advance.

French Statement.

Paris, Nov. 10.—The official communication issued tonight says:

"At the north the battle continues very violent.

"There is nothing to report on the other part of the front."

Russian Communication.

Paris, Nov. 10.—A despatch to the Havas News Agency from Petrograd says that the following Russian official statement was issued today:

"In Eastern Prussia the right wing of the enemy, who has been stubbornly resisting in the region of Lyck, has been driven back towards Mazourie Lake.

"East of Neideberg (24 miles south of Koneigsberg near the Muschaken railroad station a Russian cavalry force defeated a German detachment which was protecting the railroad. The Russians captured a train and blew up the railroad bridges.

"On November 8, Russian cavalry, meeting a cavalry division of the enemy, forced it to retire towards Kalisz.

"On the route leading to Cracow, we have attained Miechow (a town 44 miles southwest of Kielce).

"In Galicia our troops have traversed the River Wisloka. They now occupy Rzeszow, Dynow and Lisko."

Regarding Shipments of Copper.

Washington, Nov. 10.—The British ambassador informed the state department today that he had been advised by his government that while Italy prohibited the exportation of copper, it did not prevent its transit over Italian territory. Consequently, the ambassador, said the British government would feel compelled to detain copper shipments to Italy unless assured that they were for domestic consumption or were in transit to Switzerland.

Despatch from Amsterdam.

London, Nov. 10.—A despatch to the Central News from Amsterdam says:

"Trainload after trainload of German artillery are leaving the Lys Valley in the direction of Ghent.

"The German army headquarters has been transferred to Alost."

The town of Alost is fifteen miles west of Brussels and forty miles east of the fighting area around Dixmude.

German Official Report.

Berlin, Nov. 10.—Via London.—An official communication issued today by the German army headquarters says:

"Our attacks near Ypres (Belgium) yesterday are progressing slowly. More than 500 French colored and English prisoners have been taken and several machine guns captured.

"Further south our troops are advancing, the strong counter attacks of the British forces having been repulsed.

'In the Argonnes the fighting is progressing favorably, hostile attacks being easily repulsed.

"In Russian Poland near Konin (33 miles northeast of Kalisz) our cavalry dispersed a Russian battalion taking about 500 prisoners and eight machine guns."

Demands Concession from China.

Berlin, Nov. 10.—By wireless—The Novoe Vremya, a newspaper published in Petrograd, reports that the Japanese government has demanded from China a concession for the construction of a railroad from Tsi-Nan, in Shan-Tung province to the Yangtse river.

This information was given out to the press today from official sources. Other information from the same source follows:

"The Sheik Ul Islam, head of the heirarchy in Turkey, has prepared an announcement to all Mohammedans in which he declares that every Mohammedan fighting on the side of the Entente powers, Great Britain, France and Russia is not a warrior but a murderer and liable to religious punishment.

"Reports received here from Copenhagen, set forth that the Russian government is protesting to Pekin against the concentration of troops on the Manchurian frontier.

Rear-Admiral Schlieper, retired, has spoken in praise of the superior seamanship of the German admiral at the naval engagement in the Chilean waters. He dwells on the splendid use the Germans made of their position of the sun and the direction of the wind to aid them in their fighting.

"Reports received here from The Hague say that the vicar general of Rheims admits that the French used the towers of the Rheims Cathedral for military purposes.

"A group of physicians at Hamburg, in an open letter addressed to all English physicians, declares that the treatment of German civilian prisoners in England is against all the rules of hygiene and humanity. Consequently the Hamburg doctors urge the English physicians to take steps to see that these German prisoners be given better treatment.

"Count von Reventlow, writing in the Deutsche Tageszeitung, draws attention to the fact that German ports are still open for goods that are not contraband of war and that they can easily be reached. There is no reason why the United States and other neutral countries should not send ships direct to German ports, the count declares. Harbor pilots will be provided and the route north of Scotland is absolutely safe."

Send Car Lots of Provisions.

San Francisco, Nov. 10.—Carload lots of provisions for the Belgian relief ship to be sent from this port by California are being assembled in all parts of the state for immedfate shipment.

Steps were taken today looking to the charter of a 3,500 ton tramp which it is planned to follow up with another vessel of the same size as possible.

Club women under the leadership of Mrs. Herbert C. Hoover, wife of the chairman of the London Belgium commission and of Mrs. Henry Payot, chairman of the Women's Auxiliary, launched a movement today for contributors of a sack of flour from every family that can afford it.

King George Praises Army.

London, Nov. 10.—King George has sent the following communication to Sir John French, commander of the British expeditionary force on the continent:

"The splendid pluck, spirit and endurance shown by my troops in the desperate fighting which has continued so many days against vastly superior forces fills me with admiration. I am confident of the final result of their noble efforts under your able command."

General French replied, thanking his Majesty for the message which he said had been received with gratitude and pride by the army. He assured the king "of our unalterable determination to uphold the highest tradition of Your Majesty's army and carry the campaign through to a victorious conclusion."

WASHING WON'T RID HEAD OF DANDRUFF

Dissolve It, That's Best Way.

The only sure way to get rid of dandruff is to dissolve it, then you destroy it entirely. To do this, get about four ounces of ordinary liquid arvon; apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.

Do this tonight, and by morning most if not all of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy, every single sign and trace of it, no matter how much dandruff you may have.

You will find, too, that all itching and digging of the scalp will stop at once, and your hair will be fluffy, lustrous, glossy, silky and soft, and look and feel a hundred times better.

If you want to preserve your hair, do by all means get rid of dandruff, for nothing destroys the hair more quickly. It not only starves the hair and makes it fall out, but it makes it stringy, straggly, dull, dry, brittle and lifeless, and everyone notices it. You can get liquid arvon at any drug store. It is inexpensive and never fails to do the work.

A Poor Investment

Don't buy aheadache with the plunk for which you toiled today; a headache is the poorest junk on which to waste your pay! You drift into the booze bazar, when leisure hours have come, and lean against the shining bar, and call for beer or rum; for ruined nerves your coin you waste, for bleared and bloodshot eyes, for headache and for dark brown taste—these things are what you buy. A headache, when you get it free, is looked on as a curse; but when you buy it—hully chee! I know of nothing worse. A man who's feeling well and hale, and husky as a horse, goes forth and blows his hard-earned kale for headaches and remorse; he spends his money, earned in sweat, for misery and pain, for suffering and sorrow, yet he thinks that he is sane! If you must waste your weekly wage, oh, rash, imprudent man, then buy a roorback in a cage, or moonshine in a can.

Oh, buy amonkey made of a brass, that climbs a concrete tree, but don't buy headaches in a glass, for you can get them free!

ONE DOSE RELIEVES A COLD---NO QUININE

"Pape's Cold Compound" Ends Bad Colds or Grippe in a Few Hours.

Relief comes instantly.

A dose taken every two hours until three doses are taken will end grippe misery and break up a severe cold either in the head, chest, body or limbs.

It promptly opens clogged-up nostrils and air passages in the head, stops nasty discharge or nose running, relieves sick headache, dullness, feverishness, sore throat, sneezing, soreness and stiffness.

Don't stay stuffed up! Quit blowing and sniffing! Ease your throbbing head! Nothing else in the world gives such prompt relief as "Pape's Cold Compound," which costs only 25 cents at any drug store. It acts without assistance, tastes nice, causes no inconvenience. Be sure you get the genuine.

FALLING HAIR MEANS DANDRUFF IS ACTIVE

Save Your Hair! Get a 25 Cent Bottle of Danderine Right Now.

Thin, brittle, colorless and scraggy hair is mute evidence of a neglected scalp; of dandruff—that awful scurf.

There is nothing so destructive to the hair as dandruff. It robs the hair of its lustre, its strength and its very life; eventually producing a feverishness and itching of the scalp, which if not remedied causes the hair roots to shrink, loosen and die—then the hair falls out fast. A little Danderine tonight—now—any time—will surely save your hair.

Get a 25 cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter, and after the first application your hair will take on that life, lustre and luxuriance which is so beautiful. It will become wavy and fluffy and have the appearance of abundance; an incomparable gloss and softness, but what will please you most will be after just a few weeks' use, when you will actually see a lot of fine, downy hair—new hair—growing all over the scalp.—Adv.

LESS MEAT IF BACK AND KIDNEYS HURT

Take a Glass of Salts to Flush Kidneys if Bladder Bothers You.

Eating meat regularly eventually produces kidney trouble in some form or other, says a well-known authority, because the uric acid in meat excites the kidneys, they become overworked; get sluggish, clog up and cause all sorts of distress, particularly backache and misery in the kidney region; rheumatic twinges, severe headaches, acid stomach, constipation torpid liver, sleeplessness, bladder and urinary irritation.

The moment your back hurts or kidneys aren't acting right, or if bladder bothers you, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any good pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity; also to neutralize the acids in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts cannot injure anyone; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which millions of men and women take now and then to keep the kidneys and urinary organs clean, thus avoiding serious kidney disease.

RESULT OF SUFFRAGE VOTE IS UNCERTAIN.

Helena, Mont., Nov. 10.—Advocates of equal suffrage, the country over, who are keenly interested in the outcome of the Montana vote on this question last Tuesday, must wait a long time before they learn the fate of their cause. The official canvass of the returns will not begin until the first Monday in December. Meanwhile the ballot boxes will remain sealed and there is no means of learning the result in a dozen counties where no tally on the suffrage vote was taken before the returns were shipped to the secretary of state.

TURKEYS PROBABLY CHEAPER

Carlisle, Ky., Nov. 10.— The Thanksgiving turkey market opened here today, with a brisk slaughter of the birds. The market will probably get a record quantity of turkeys as some of the local dealers report a large crop. The birds are not fully up the highest standard, but the price this year should be considerably lower than last year.

WORLD'S MARKET NEWS

SCARCITY OF VESSELS HAS DEPRESSING INFLUENCE

Wheat Prices Decrease—Bears Have Advantage in Corn Market.

Chicago, Nov. 10.—Difficulty in finding enough vessels to proveide a sufficient outlet for exports from gulf states had a depressing influence today on the wheat market here. Prices, although firm at the close were 1@1¾c to ⅛c under last night. Corn finished 1c to 1@1⅛c down, oats off ½@⅝c to [illegible]c and provisions varying from unchanged figures to a decline of 32½c.

Liquidating sales by discouraged holders of wheat began at the outset and formed the most noticeable feature of the market until just before the close when the low price which had been reached tempted exporters, it was said, to take hold with rather a free hand. Previously, the buying power had seemed of a fitful limited character, with traders meanwhile giving sharp attention to despatches telling of the piling up of stocks at Kansas City and the congestion of traffic on the railroad lines to Galveston, Port Arthur and New Orleans, owing to the lack of readily available ocean freight room.

Increased arrivals of corn in prospect gave an advantage to the bears in that cereal. The weather favored shipping and it was said that husking was generally well advanced. Oats sufered in price with other grain. Nothing was heard about any export business in oats.

AIDS MEXICANS.

Washington, Nov. 10.—Admiral Howard, commander of the Pacific fleet advised the navy department today that the cruiser Chattanooga had distributed supplies, dispatched by the American Red Cross to relieve famine conditions among eight hundred needy families at Acapulco, Mexico.

Admiral Howard's dispatch was interpreted by navy officials as the explanation of reports from Mexico City that American marines had landed at Acapulco. In all probability the Chattanooga's marines landed the supplies and supervised their distribution.

WAS HEARD IN SUPERB CONCERT

MRS. HELEN BROWN READ DELIGHTED LARGE AUDIENCE.

First Number of the Artists' Course of the Illinois Woman's College Was Given in Music Hall Last Evening—Miss Louise Miller Accompanist.

Jacksonville music lovers again had the privilege of hearing Mrs. Helen Brown Read Tuesday night, in the first number of the Artists' course of the Illinois Woman's college, in Music hall. It was a large and representative audience that greeted Mrs. Read, who was in fine voice and gave a program of unusual merit. It was the initial number of the list of attractions which the college has outlined for the season and judging from the auspicious opening of last evening, the course promises to be one of especial excellence.

Mrs. Read has ever been a favorite with Jacksonville people and her art never fails to please. It has been a pleasure to note the growth she has made in the musical world and she has not only won honors for herself in this country but abroad. She opened her program last night with a group of French songs from Du Parc and Saint Saens. Mrs. Read shows a splendid French pronounciation and a command of the French style as well as great opulence of voice. The Opera "Aida" from Verdi was distinguished by fire and intensity and striking reading of this great number for soprano.

The German group was characterized by the profound sentiment so peculiarly adapted to that people. The "Wiegenlied" by Brahms and the "Heimliche Aufforderung" by Strauss, displayed in striking measure the wide range and effect of which the singer's voice is capable.

The group in English was exceedingly interesting, representing as it did the modern "Spirit Song" by Campbell-Tipton, the two quaint conceits by Rimsky-Korsakow and the two old English songs. In all the numbers of the evening, Mrs. Read showed herself at home in the varying styles and able to meet the demands of such an exacting program. She was forced to respond to three encores which she graciously gave, including the "Land of the Sky Blue Water", and "I Hear a Thrush at Eve, both by Cadman, and "Down in the forest", by Landon Ronald.

The accompanyments of the evening were in the capable hands of Miss Louise Miller, who proved herself an accompanist of uncommon ability and by her artistic and sympathetic support of the singer added greatly to the pleasure of the evening.

The program follows:

Du Parc—Chanson Triste.
Du Parc—Phydle.
Saint Saens—La Cloche.
Verdi—Ritorna Vincitor (from Opera "Aida")
Brahms—Wie bist du meine Koenigen.
Brahms—Wiegenlied.
Tschaikowsky—Warum.
Richard Strauss—Morgen.
Richard Strauss—Heimliche Aufforderung.
Campbell-Tipton—A Spirit Flower.
Rimsky-Korsakow—Song of India.
Rimsky-Korsakow—Song of the Shepherd Lehl.
Old English—My Lovely Celia.
Horn—I've Been Roaming.

METHODIST MISSIONARY APPROPRIATION $800,000

Appropriations Voted at Meeting of General Commission.

Boston, Nov. 10.—Appropriations for missionary work amounting to $800,000 were voted at today's meeting of the general commission of the Methodist Episcopal board of foreign missions.

Bishop Robinson asked that a special appropriation be made to help the German missionaries in Southern Asia, whose pay, he said, had been entirely cut off. The request was referred to a committee.

During the discussion following a motion to combine the fields of South America and Mexico under the name of Latin-America, Bishop McConnell of Denver declared he did not expect a speedy settlement of the trouble in Mexico and missionaries should remain there.

"If we should agree to rest until Mexico is in a state of equilibrium, we might wait indefinitely", he said "It is the missionaries there who will bring about peace eventually and we should not be quitting, if we rested from our labors."

Mothers Tell of Mother's Friend

Experience is or should be our best teacher. Women who have obeyed the highest and noblest of all sacrifices, the struggle for the life of others, should have a better idea of helpful influence than those who theorize from observation.

At any rate when a prospective grandmother urges her daughter to do as she did—to use "Mother's Friend," there is ample reason to believe it the right kind of advice.

"Mother's Friend" is an external application for expectant mothers. Its purpose is to furnish pliancy to the muscles, to take away the strain on the cords and ligaments, to relieve the tension of nerves and tendons so apt to provoke or aggravate nausea, morning sickness, twitchings of the limbs and so on.

Although, in the nature of things, a woman would use "Mother's Friend" but but rarely, yet so effective has it been found that this splendid remedy is on sale in most drug stores throughout the United States. It has been prepared by Bradfield Regulator Co., 506 Lamar Bldg., Atlanta, Ga., and advertised by us for over forty years. This is a fine record for such a special remedy and the grateful letters received to-day are just as appreciative as were those of years ago notwithstanding that methods are supposed to have greatly advanced. Ask at the drug store for a bottle of "Mother's Friend." It is worth while.

What is said herein of "Mother's Friend" is but a repetition of the thoughts expressed by thousands of happy mothers who have successfully used this splendid external application.

MISS SPIRES TELLS OF WORK AT DOMESTIC SCIENCE SCHOOL

Morgan County Young Woman Outlines the Practical Work Done There in Two Weeks' Term—Report Made at Franklin.

Miss Ethel Spires, who attended the stata fair domestic science school as the representative of Morgan county, presented a report at the Farmers' institute in Franklin Saturday. This well written report, which is printed below, gives a very clear idea of the excellent work which is done at the school:

To the Honorable President and Members of the Morgan County Farmers' Institute, Gentlemen:

The fifteenth annual session of the Illinois state fair school of domestic science opened Sept. 10 and closed Sept. 25, 1914. There were 105 girls enrolled. On entering a fee of ten dollars was paid to the treasurer to cover the board during the two weeks. On being enrolled each pupil was examined as to her previous opportunities and examined at the close of the two weeks on the work done during the term. Each pupil furnished her own toilet articles, napkin ring, white and kitchen aprons and a blanket for her bed.

The girls were divided into five groups for service, each group having a captain; the groups taking turns in preparing meals, dish wiping, dining room work, baking and dormitory work. In this way all pupils get practical training in all kinds of work. Aside from the practical work there were three lectures each day. One by the nurse, Miss Frances Crabtree, on subjects pertaining to health, at 9 a. m. each day. Two lectures each day were given by Mrs. Nellie Jones, director of the school; one at 10 a. m. and one at 2 p. m. Mrs. Jones' lectures were on food subjects of all kinds and correct table setting and serving.

Aside from the regular work of the school there were other entertaining features. An entertainment was gotten up by the captains of the different groups in the way of a musical and literary program.

There were theatre parties and 1 afternoon the girls went in a body to see Ringling Bros.' show. On another afternoon they were taken on a sight seeing trip over the city, visiting Lincoln's home, the state house, the supreme court building, and the governor's mansion.

The first Sunday the girls attended different churches in Springfield and also had a vesper service at the building at 4 o'clock. The second Sunday all went in a body to the Coliseum to hear Rev. Dr. Montgomery. On the first Saturday evening of the fair week the womans' board and the girls of the domestic science school gave a reception to the boys of the agricultural school and members of the board of agriculture. A short program was rendered, after which refreshments were served and a social hour followed.

One afternoon the girls went in a body to Lincoln's monument and stopped on the way back for a little picnic. Supper was brought out and served in picnic style.

The governor's luncheon was served at noon on Thursday.

Mrs. Nellie Jones, who has been director at the school for the past nine years, again had charge of the work, this being her tenth year. Mrs. Lena Stevenson Mann had charge of the baking. Mrs. J. J. Shamel superintended the dining room work and Miss Frances Crabtree had charge of the dormitory work. Miss Olive B. Percival, instructor in household science at Illinois university, assisted Mrs. Jones and Mrs. Mann in their departments.

The purpose of the school is the training of young women in the better methods of cooking and housekeeping, and thereby help them to become better home-makers. We believe much has been accomplished and many homes in Illinois have been helped.

Ethel L. Spires.

MISSIONARY BOARD DISCUSSES WAR SITUATION.

Missionaries from many parts of the world attended the conference.

WOMAN ALL RUN DOWN

LAXATIVE FOR OLD PEOPLE---"CASCARETS"

Salts, Calomel, Pills, Act on Bowels Like Pepper Acts in Nostrils.

Get a 10 cent box now.

Most old people must give to the bowels some regular help, else they suffer from constipation. The condition is perfectly natural. It is just as natural as it is for old people to walk slowly. For age is never so active as youth. The muscles are less elastic. And the bowels are muscles.

So all old people need Cascarets. One might as well refuse to aid weak eyes with glasses as to neglect this gentle aid to weak bowels. The bowels must be kept active. This is important at all ages, but never so much as at fifty.

Age is not a time for harsh physics. Youth may occasionally whip the bowels into activity. But a lash can't be used every day. What the bowels of the old need is a gentle and natural tonic. One that can be constantly used without harm. The only such tonic is Cascarets, and they cost only 10 cents per box at any drug store. They work while you sleep. —advertisement.

UNION LABOR TO HAVE A GRAND PADADE

Greatest Demonstration in History of Organized Labor Planned for Friday.

Philadelphia, Nov. 10. — The greatest demonstration in the history of union labor in America will take place here on Friday night, as a feature of the convention of the American Federation, which opened here yesterday. Fully 100,000 men will be in line, and 5,000 musicians will take part. Every branch of organized trade will be represented in the big torchlight parade and President Gompers and his fellow officials, as well as Mayor Blankenburg, will review the parade.

The aid that union labor can give to the movement to make America the leading manufacturing nation in the world was one of the subjects discussed last night by President Samuel Gompers, in his annual address. The opportunities afforded by the European war to accomplish this end, he declared, were fully appreciated by union men, and that organized labor was prepared to take various lines of action in aiding America to achieve this supremacy. A plan was proposed to interest municipalities and grades bodies all over the country in the campaign for foreign trade.

In connection with the movement for trade expansion, an industrial exhibition was opened today in Horticultural Hall. It is the most complete exhibition of union-made products ever presented to the public. Motion pictures showing union workers and sanitary, up-to-date methods, are also features of the exhibit.

In the monster parade, Frank Feeney will act as chief marshall. His aides will be Leonard Kraft, Joseph M. Ritchie, Frank O'Brien, Charles Torpey, Harry Semple, John J. McDevitt, George H. Ulrich, James C. Cronin and William Young, Jr. The marchers will assemble at 8 p. m., and headed by President Gompers in a motor car, will march to Horticultural Hall where President Gompers and his suite will review the delegations.

One of the most important questions to be decided at the convention is the choice of officers. The re-election of President Gompers will be hotly contested, as it was last year, but friends of the labor chieftian declare he will receive a handsome majority of votes.

Camel

It's the Quality that sells Camels—not Premiums

No matter how much you pay for cigarettes—5c, 10c, 15c, 20c or 25c—you simply haven't got enough money to buy a smoke in the same class with Camels! You may pin your faith on Turkish, or on domestics, but you've something new coming in Camels, because they're an expert blend of choice quality Turkish and domestic tobaccos.

You buy 20 for 10c and get some pointers on what a cigarette can be when the tobacco's got the goods. Money can't get you a more delightful cigarette.

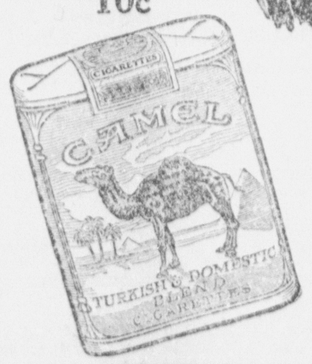

Camels are mellow and smooth. The bite and parch and cigaretty taste of ordinary brands are noticeable for their absence—in Camels! Stake a dime on the Camel today.

If your dealer can't supply you, send 10c for one package or $1.00 for a carton of ten packages (200 cigarettes), sent postage prepaid. If after smoking one package you are not delighted with Camels, return the other nine packages and we will refund your money.

MISS MABEL LONERGAN BECOMES BRIDE OF JAMES OLIVER CAIN

Wed Tuesday Morning at Church of Our Savior With Two Uncles of Groom Officiating—Leave For Trip to Chicago and Minneapolis.

A beautiful and impressive ceremony of marriage took place Tuesday morning at 8:30 o'clock when Miss Mabel Louise Lonergan became the bride of Mr. James Oliver Cain. The ceremony was said by Rev. Father John P. Maroney, assisted by his brother, Rev. Father David Maroney, uncles of the groom. The young people were attended by Miss Teresa Lonergan, sister of the bride, and Muriel Cain, brother of the groom. Louis A. Cain and P. H. Lonergan served as ushers. The bridal party entered the church as Miss Margaret Ring played the wedding march from Lohengrin and during the ceremony, Mrs. Terrance Brennan sang the Ave Maria.

The bride wore a gown of white duchess satin made en train with tulle overdress trimmed in real lace and pearls. She wore a tulle veil caught up with swansonia flowers and carried a shower bouquet of swansonia and bride's roses. The bride's maid was becomingly attired in a gown of yellow crepe meteor trimmed in satin bands and gold lace. She wore a white hat with yellow plume, and carried a bouquet of yellow chrysanthemums. The bridal party made their exit to the strains of Mendelssohn.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Margaret Lonergan, 1118 South Main street, and has always made Jacksonville her home. She has won many warm friends by her pleasant and lovable ways. She received her education in the parochial school and Routt college and is also a graduate of Brown's Business college.

The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Cain who reside south of Jacksonville. He is a young man of strong character and business ability. He was educated in this city and is a graduate of Routt college. Mr. Cain is now employed as a traveling salesman for the Russel-Miller Milling Co., Minneapolis, Minn.

Immediately after the ceremony the bridal party went to the home of the bride's mother, which was beautifully decorated in the wedding colors yellow and white. The parlor and living room was decorated in yellow and white chrysanthemums, the dining room and hall in bride's roses and ferns.

A breakfast of four courses was served to the immediate members of both families. The guests of honor were Rev. J. W. Crowe, the Rev. D. J. Maroney, of Carrollton, and Rev. J. P. Maroney of Pana.

Mr. and Mrs. Cain were the recipients of many handsome and useful gifts tokens of esteem from many friends. They left by auto Tuesday afternoon for a trip in the north which will include Chicago and Minneapolis. They will be at home to their friends after December 1, at 935 South Main street.

MOOSE HUNTING IN MAINE.

Bangor, Me., Nov. 10.—The moose hunting season, which opened last week, has brought a goodly number of big game hunters into the wilds of Maine, for it is expected that a five-year closed season will be put on the moose next season. Reports reaching here today show few killings, for the big animals are pretty scarce, except along the Canadian border. Last year the number of kills fell to 92 from 200 in 1912, and it is doubtful whether the hunters will report a full hundred trophies this year.

NORWAY WILL PARTICIPATE.

San Francisco, Nov 10—President C. C. Moore of the Panama Pacific exposition, was notified today that Norway will participate officially. The Norwegian Storthing, according to a telegram received from the American minister at Christiana, has appropriated $42,000 for this purpose. $28,000 of which will be used in the construction of a pavilion and $14,000 to defray the expenses of sending a warship to take part in the international naval parade through the Panama canal and thence to San Francisco.

MINOR LEAGUES PLEDGE TO SUPPORT NATIONAL AGREEMENT

All Talk of Leagues Breaking Away From Organized Baseball is Set at Rest.

Omaha, Neb., Nov. 10.—All talk that the National Association of Professional Baseball Clubs, which includes in its membership every minor league of consequence in the United States and Canada would as a whole or in part break away from organized baseball was set at rest today when that organization unanimously pledged its membership to the support of the national agreement.

The resolution placed on record was the first matter of business which came before the convention when it met today and was disposed of without a dissenting vote. Governor Tener, B. B. Johnson, and August Herrmann, members of the national commission were all in the city today but Chairman M. H. Sexton declared that the resolution has been prepared and accepted by most of the members before they arrived.

There were numerous previous conferences and much discussion as to what action the association might take in regard to the matter but when the convention was called to order for its first session there apparently was a general understanding that no deviation from its previous policy of adhering to the national agreement would be made.

The action of the convention in this respect relieved a tension which had been high ever since the baseball magnates began to arrive Monday morning and the satisfaction felt was evidenced by the convention making little attempt to transact any other business during the remainder of the day.

None of the members of the national commission was willing to talk about the future of the Federal League but nearly every delegate was willing to admit that the minors were quite out of sympathy with outlaw ball. It was apparently understood, also, that if any further attempts were made to keep the Federal League in the field the members of that organization would have to take the financial and other responsibilities.

Relations Defined Soon.

Chicago, Nov. 10.—The relations between organized baseball and the federal league probably will be definitely defined and conjecture over the ownership of the Chicago National League club ended by Thursday of this week, according to Charles Weeghman, president and owner of the Chicago Federals and holder of an option on the Cubs.

Mr. Weeghman said tonight that he expected to meet with B. B. Johnson, president of the American League and August Heerman, chairman of the national commission as soon as they returned from Omaha.

James Gilmore, president of the Federal League declared that whatever agreement might be reached with organized baseball the Federal League would continue to operate.

SUIT TO RECOVER MILLIONS DISMISSED.

Suit Against Directors of Frisco Line Stricken.

St. Louis, Nov. 10.—A suit to recover $14,000,000 from directors and former directors of the St. Louis and San Francisco railroad were dismissed in the federal court here this afternoon.

The dismissal of the suit, which was filed by the receivers, is part of the plan of the receivers to repudiate a liability of the Frisco railroad on a $26,000,000 bond issue of the New Orleans Texas and Mexico railroad.

That it was the intention of the receivers to repudiate that bond issue was published several months ago and plans, dismissal of the suit then were under way. The plans were halted by the death of James Campbell, one of the defendants in the suits

The situation was outlined in the Federal court today by Loomis Johnson, attorney for the receivers. He announced that the dismissal of the suit would not preclude the filing of a similar suit and that such a suit might be refiled after the liability of the Frisco on the $26,000,000 bond issue had been determined.

DENIES CHANGE OF VENUE

Albany, N. Y., Nov. 10.—An appeal from Supreme Court Justice Chester's order denying a motion for a change of venue in the suit brought by William Barnes, against Col. Theodore Roosevelt to recover $50,000 for alleged libel, was argued today before the appellate division of the supreme court. The discretionary powers of Justice Chester in denying the motion were questioned by the Roosevelt attorneys.

The heating of homes by steam, hot-water systems, and hard-coal stoves, removes all the moisture from the atmostphere in the home, and literally bakes the very air you breathe. How may healthful, moist air be generated? By the use of the Round Oak Base Burner with Humidifier. This is your insurance policy. Proper size and location of this "Health-giving" attachment together with other vital and patented improvements in construction, combine to produce the handsomest four-fuel stove which, not only heats your home more economically, but assures you of health, cheer and happiness.

PLANNING FOR GIVING AT CHRISTMAS TIME

Fund Established to Bring Good Cheer to the Needy.

Plans are under way at the city building for observing the Christmas season. Mayor Davis, Chief of Police Davis and R. L. Pyatt, clerk, have started a fund for the purchase of Christmas gifts and supplies for the needy. Last year they with others at the city hall and friends generally provided a vast amount of Christmas cheer. Baskets of groceries and fruits, poultry, oysters, etc., were sent out in addition to toys and clothing.

Chief of Police Davis makes it his business to investigate each case which comes to his attention and he has a growing list of those he knows are worthy and needy. A number of persons have applied for names of children or grownups they want to look after personally, and if others are in quest of such cases they can secure names and addresses from the chief of police. Any others who care to join in the general plan of making other people happy on Christmas day are invited to aid if they have not already specific cases which have been called to their attention.

CRABBE-TAPSCOTT ANNOUNCEMENT ERROR

Announcement Made in Tuesday Morning's Journal is Not Correct.

About noon Monday the Illinois telephoned summoned the clerk at the Journal office and some very polite, sweet voiced damsel gave in information regarding the approaching marriage of Mr. Ciell Crabbe to Miss Ethel Tapscott. The young people are acquainted with each other, it is said, but the report given in Monday by the unknown young lady is entirely false and should rightly come under the head of malicious mischief. The Journal very much regrets the publication of this erroneous report and would very gladly publish the name of the young lady informant were it possible to do so.

Today we start our big sale of ladies' suits; liberal and genuine reductions on stylish new suits—long and short coat models of best materials, thoroughly well tailored and every suit a 1914 Winter style.

QUARANTINE WHITE HALL CATTLE.

Herd of Fifty-Five is Isolated for Observation by Dr. Giller.

A herd of fifty-five head of cattle owned by A. J. Barnett at White Hall has been placed under quarantine at that place by Dr. Giller. Although reports were out to the effect that twenty of the animals in the herd were suffering from the foot and mouth disease, both the owner and Dr. Giller were emphatic in their statements Tuesday that there is absolutely nothing the matter with the animals and they were merely placed under quarantine as a precaution.

The cattle were purchased at a sale in Tallula about five weeks ago by Mr. Barnett and before they were shipped to White Hall one of them died. A veternarian at Tallula stated that the animal died from lung trouble. The fact that there is a great deal of danger of contracting the disease through the shipment of cattle prompted the quarantine and if the animals have contracted the disease it will develop in a few days. Every precautionary measure to prevent the disease from getting among the cattle in that community is being taken and all of the stock cars are being fumigated. One man who has sold a car load of straw from a field, was not permitted to ship it for fear that it might possibly have been infected by some cattle.
